

Name _____
Date _____
Hour _____

What Mr. Mattero Did
Anticipation Guide

Write Yes if you agree with the statement; write No if you disagree with the statement.

- _____ 1 Shoplifting is OK as long as it involves under $10.
- _____ 2 Shoplifting is OK if you come from a poor family.
- _____ 3 Actions speak louder than words.
- _____ 4 A person is innocent until proven guilty.
- _____ 5 Sometime it's OK to lie.
- _____ 6 A white lie never hurts anyone.
- _____ 7 The choices you make today can affect you the rest of your life.
- _____ 8 I have things that I look for in a person in order to choose a friend.
- _____ 9 I can always trust my parents.
- _____ 10 I can always trust my teacher.
- _____ 11 I can always trust my best friend.
- _____ 12 You can't totally trust anybody.
- _____ 13 You can always believe what you hear.

Name _____
Date _____
Hour _____

What Mr. Mattero Did
Make a Prediction

Prediction – to say in advance what one believes will happen

In at least four or five complete sentences write a prediction about who is telling the truth in the novel after the following chapters. Be sure to answer the following questions: Who is telling the truth? Why do you believe Mr. Mattero/the girls? Be sure to support your answers with details from the story and your observations of the characters.

Chapter 8 Prediction:

Name _____
Date _____
Hour _____

What Mr. Mattero Did
Make a Prediction

Prediction – to say in advance what one believes will happen

In at least four or five complete sentences write a prediction about who is telling the truth in the novel after the following chapters. Be sure to answer the following questions: Who is telling the truth? Why do you believe Mr. Mattero/the girls? Be sure to support your answers with details from the story and your observations of the characters.

Chapters 9 - 16 Prediction:

Chapters 17 - 18 Prediction: